

TO RUSSIA AGAINST CZAR

Revolutionist Proclamations,
Printed in St. Petersburg,
Mailed to This City.

PLAN GIGANTIC REVOLT

That the war against the czar in Russia is to be waged in earnest by the revolutionists, and that hereafter armed insurrection is to be the policy of the rebels in fighting the regime of persecution and oppression, is proven by the call to arms, issued by the central committee of the Russian revolutionary parties, which have been united to many of the Russian refugees in America.

Ever since the dissolution of the second Duma, numerous Russian in America have been quietly preparing to leave this country and go to the aid of their friends in the dominion of the White Czar, who are valiantly trying to secure freedom for that blood-cursed country. Now that Russia has become free, it is expected that within a few weeks there will be a great exodus of men and women, anxious to see the czar and his family in opposition to the treaty of the old Russian.

Czar's Triple Crime.

One of the documents recently received from the revolutionists in Russia is a proclamation, signed by the central committee of the Russian revolutionary parties, which has been mailed to many of the Russian refugees in America.

The proclamation is entitled "The New Order of the Czar," and is a call to arms, urging the Russian people to rise up and overthrow the czar and his family.

The proclamation is signed by the central committee of the Russian revolutionary parties, which has been mailed to many of the Russian refugees in America.

People Must Answer.

"Growing largely through the growing inequality of the revolutionists and the silence of the people, ominous though it may be, the revolutionists must turn to the people of all countries and ask them to answer the call to arms."

The proclamation is signed by the central committee of the Russian revolutionary parties, which has been mailed to many of the Russian refugees in America.

CLINTON, Ill., July 29.—

A return to my home city to obtain visitors. As soon as this proclamation was made, I announced my desire to face my accusers and to prove my innocence. I was called a liar. I am ready to face my accusers and to prove my innocence. I was called a liar. I am ready to face my accusers and to prove my innocence.
